

BYATT'S BREWHOUSE BAR

★ BREWERY TOURS

£15 per person

Have you ever sat at home drinking one of our beers or at our bar and thought...how does he do that? Ever considered a career in beer or fancied making your own home brew?

You need a “beer-ducation” Get it?! Brewing our beers is a serious process and something we are VERY proud of. We know what it takes to produce a large variety of quality beers and are willing to share ‘some’ of those secrets with you!

Our brewery tours give you an insight into our fascinating brewing process from conception to completion. The smell in our brewhouse is just incredible which is due to the storage of our raw ingredient which you actually get to sample as part of the tour!

Want to know the best part of the tour though? You get to drink the finished products at the end. What could be better? Price includes your ‘beer-ducation’ (tour of the brewery), 3 pints of our beers AND a branded pint glass to take home. Also available to book for private parties, for a totally different team night out. Contact us for details.

Please note tours are for years 18 and over, sensible footwear must be worn (no heels or open footwear). Steps will be included within the tour and can not be avoided. Tours must be booked in advance with the brewery.
